CAN YOU ESCAPE IN TIME?

OUR GAMES

TAKEN

available at Oz Tenpin Epping

As part of an elite police unit tasked with tracking down a notorious serial killer, you and your team have identified a potential lair and are about to enter to search for evidence to help catch the killer before he strikes again.

But is everything as it seems? Can you complete your task in time, or will you be TAKEN?

CONTAGION

Available at Oz Tenpin Greensborough

A breach at a laboratory in Collingwood has lead to the global spread of the deadly H5N1 (Pica Influenza) virus.

Millions of lives have already been lost and as the head scientist of Infectious Diseases at CYC Global, you and your team have one last chance to enter the original facility and collect the vaccine.

If you cannot get the virus to the extraction zone in time, orders have been given to cleanse the area once and for all.

THE PROFESSOR'S CODE

available at Oz Tenpin Point Cook

Learning from one of the worlds greatest authorities on Leonardo Da Vinci, you and your fellow students were delighted to be given the chance to assist your Professor on trips around the world finding lost items relating to the great inventor.

Recently, you have discovered that the professor is a member of a secret society and has been keeping some of the items.

You all believe they should be in museums, and now you have the opportunity to break into his home study and find them while he is away. Can you get them out before he returns?
